

Young Nonprofit Professionals Network – Twin Cities
Volunteer Position Description
GRAPHIC/WEB DESIGNER

YNPN-TC Mission:

We provide and promote opportunities for the development of young nonprofit professionals.

YNPN-TC is a network of young nonprofit professionals that is driven by a volunteer board of directors. As we do not have any paid staff, we rely heavily on volunteers to advance the mission of our organization. If you would like a meaningful, skill-building volunteer position with a dynamic, fun network, please consider volunteer with us in one of our many available positions.

Volunteer Position: Graphic/Web Designer

Responsibilities:

- Brainstorming and designing creative concepts for marketing materials
- Providing creative input and design skills for website and branding initiatives
- Coordinating with the communications team to ensure successful delivery of projects

Supervisor: Communications Chair, Jamie Millard -jjmillard86@gmail.com

Time Commitment: 5-7 hours each month (approximately)

Prerequisites: Must become a member of YNPN-TC (if not already a member). Membership is free and requires registration in our online directory.

Necessary Skills:

- A conceptual thinker with good communication and problem-solving skills
- Ability to work individually and collaboratively
- Experience and access to desktop publishing software (e.g. Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign)
- Experience with HTML, JavaScript or other web markup language (web designer only)
- Driven to define the look and feel of YNPN-TC
- Ability to make necessary time commitment and follow through on assignments
- A great attitude, willingness to grow and commitment to the mission of YNPN-TC!

Position benefits:

- Expand your portfolio while taking your artistic prowess to new heights
- Develop strong ties in the Twin Cities nonprofit community
- Exposure to free networking and professional development opportunities

TO APPLY: please complete our YNPN-TC Volunteer Interest Form. You can also contact YNPN-TC at volunteer@ynpntwincities.org with questions or comments regarding this opportunity.